OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF AGRICULTURE IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Notification dated 3rd February 1931.

The Government have been pleased to extend till the end of the present official year, 1930-31, the scheme of selling good Amrit Mahal breeding bulls from the Cattle Breeding Station, Ajjampur, for the benefit of raiyats.

The bulls will continue to be distributed as in the previous year through the District Boards to Village Panchayats, Co-operative Societies or individuals recommended by the Boards who have also kindly consented to set apart some funds for meeting a moiety of the cost of such bulls in deserving cases. Such of the institutions or individuals as are prepared to pay the full cost of a bull will be supplied direct.

The bulls will be distributed under the following conditions, at a flat rate of Rs. 200 each, delivery at the Cattle Breeding Station, Ajjampur :—

1. The purchasers shall neither castrate nor sell the bulls without the consent of the Director of Agriculture within five years from the date of purchase.
2. A record of coverings shall be kept by the purchaser and this record as well as the bull shall be available at all times for inspection by Officers of the Civil Veterinary Department, the Amrit Mahal Superintendent and the Live Stock Officer.
3. Should the bull prove to be unsatisfactory in service within a period of one year from the date of purchase and should it appear on inspection and enquiry by one of the abovementioned officers that the deterioration is not due to neglect or mismanagement on the part of the purchaser, the latter may be provided in exchange with another bull from the stock on the Station.

Twenty-five bulls trained to rope are immediately available for inspection in the Station and another 25 animals will be ready very soon. Intending purchasers whether individuals or organizations will be allowed to make their choice as long as the supply lasts. Applications should be sent without delay to the Director of Agriculture, Bangalore, or to the Manager, Government Cattle Breeding Station, Ajjampur post.

ERSKINE C. COLEMAN,
Director of Agriculture.
